THE

OBSERVER

All honor to you, graduates of 1959, and all good wishes, too! We'd like to express our friendly congratulations on your graduation . . . and our confidence that you will meet the challenge of the future with success.

Valedictory

We are assembled tonight for the last time as the Warren High School Class of 1959. Tomorrow we must proceed as 265 individuals. Let us pause at this crossroad in our lives to consider -- yesterday, today, and tomorrow -- for each will influence the road we now choose to follow.

GOOD LUCK
'59
Grads

Western Auto

Looking back on the 17 or 18 years of our lives presents many memories. We first remember our homes and the love and security found there. As we grew older, school and church became important parts of our lives. Then we reached Warren High School, and can any of us ever forget the last few years? The lasting friendships we have formed; the faculty members who have taught us, guided us, and become our friends; the hours we have spent in study; some long, some not so long; the hours we have spent in extracurricular activities; cheering at the athletic contests; participating in dramatics, choir, or band; working on the "Dragonette"; and the other unforgettable experiences we have had just attending Warren High School.

But these should only be memories. We must not regret that we are leaving, for we cannot go back, we cannot stop here, we must go forward. Next year will find some of us attending college, some working at various jobs, some serving in the armed forces, and some married and making homes. But beyond that it is difficult to see. No one can predict the events of the distant future.

Today we are standing on the threshold of our future. Our thoughts, our actions, our decisions determine what we will be tomorrow. Therefore we must prepare each day for the tomorrow, when we shall assume our places in the world. We must live each day well according to the philosophy expressed in the SANSKRIT, which is as true now as it was then.

"... today, well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope."

Linda Whitehill

VALEDICTORIAN

The valedictorian of the 1959 graduating class was Linda Whitehill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Whitehill, 416 Water St., Warren.

She maintained a perfect 5.0 average during her three years in high school.

High in air thy spires are tow'ring
Gleaming in the light,
While their solemn shades
embow'ring
Waves the Blue and White --
Furling in its tranquil beauty
O'er a body true --
Sons and daughters bound by duty
Give their love to you.

Thy bright emblem shining o'er us
Shows thy glorious might.
Through the years thou safely bore
us
Spotless Blue and White.

Bring thee praise and fame,
And thy standard high upraises --

Salutatory

The salutatorian honors were won by Sally DeLong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeLong, of North Warren. Her average for the three years was 4.871.

We, the graduating class of 1959 of Warren High School, sincerely welcome to the eighty-second annual commencement our parents, teachers, friends, and the citizens of this area. To you we are deeply indebted for the educational opportunities and guidance which have already proved and will continue to prove invaluable.

Before today we were dependent largely upon you. Before we started our formal education you began teaching us a sense of responsibility. As we grew older we rose from "mother's little helper" to "the babysitter", or from "the paper boy" to "that boy who does the lawns", until finally we sought employment with downtown businessmen. We are thankful to these businessmen and their organizations for their cooperation with the school and their promotion of cultural and recreational activities.

Now we have reached the point of graduation, a turning point in the road of life which leads to more independence and, therefore, more responsibility. Our every action will no longer be closely supervised. Someone will not always be near to rescue us from undesirable or uncomfortable situations. Decisions will suddenly and rudely be thrust into our inexperienced hands. It will be in these situations that we will realize and fully appreciate the value of our diligent teaching and wise counsel. We, the class of 1959, gratefully express our thanks.

Congratulations

This is one of the highlights of your life. We hope you will remember it with pleasure as we offer our best wishes for the future.
